

BE Teacher / Tutor

The role:

- You will be available every Saturday during term time to deliver pre-prepared lessons.
- You will be fully committed to forging strong relationships with each of the 16 students in your two classes, including evaluation of end of term assessments.
- You will be familiar with the curriculum, learning objectives and lesson format for your specific Phase prior to delivery.
- You are welcomed to adapt teaching content to tie in with your methodological preferences/strengths.
- You are encouraged to evaluate aspects of the service and put forward ideas for continued improvement e.g. curriculum design, lesson plans, extra-curricular provision, etc.
- You will deliver a keynote speech in morning assembly on something they are passionate about or a particular theme that promotes aspiration once a term.
- Once a term you will be on hand to facilitate extended extra-curricular activities, assisting on trips, team building, social action projects, awards ceremonies, etc.

Requirements:

- You must have QTS.
- You must be passionate about social justice and empathetic to the challenges faced by disadvantaged learners.
- You must have a strong academic and professional track record.
- You must have strong communication and interpersonal skills.
- You must have excellent time-keeping and organisational skills.

What we offer:

- £100 - £140 per Saturday morning depending on level of experience.
- Reduced class sizes with high ability students.
- A unique, intellectually rigorous curriculum.
- Opportunities to take part in discussion/planning groups, circulating innovative teaching and learning ideas/approaches.
- Phase leadership and team management responsibility.
- Promotion and career progression opportunities.
- A favourable reference upon the completion of a successful post.